

sound of perpetual astonishment
limited supply recordings

Delay Lama

Mk. I

SOPA007 – SOPA – June, 2008

Delay Lama is a duo consisting of Dennis Thang Block and Rune Sørensen. Together they forge a kind of electronica that is very much now, but still has one foot in the past. Drawing upon some of the old school electronic repetitive vibes, while still maintaining a certain pop sensibility. They each bring in elements from their other musical projects to whatever Delay Lama is. Rune also plays in the electronic pop band Indurain and Dennis is active in Dazzle Ships and Jong Pang - and before that was songwriter, guitarist and singer in the noise-pop band Strumm.

"Mk. I" is an EP collecting several recordings made by Dennis Block between 1997 and 2000. Back before he made his mark as part of Strumm and Delay Lama transformed into a duo when Rune Sørensen came onboard.

The music on "Mk. I" moves between beatless, menacing drones - over widescreen soundscapes - to jittery rhythmic elements that circle beneath the evocative notes.

The cd contains only one track. It's a bit over 41 minutes long, though. It is made up of five »movements«:

1. Under
2. Omkring (Det 13. Slag)
3. På (Det Har Sit Eget Liv)
4. Over
5. Ved Siden Af

All the music was done live and recorded analogue. It was remastered and remixed in 2007 for this release.

Websites with more info and additional songs:

www.sopa.dk/delaylama

www.myspace.com/delaylama

For high quality press photos and cd cover please visit www.sopa.dk/press

Info:

Delay Lama: Mk. I (SOPA007)

Total playing time: 41:18

1st printing: 50 copies

Most material recorded between 1997 and 2000.

Remixed and remastered in 2008.

Composed and performed by Dennis Thang Block.

